

WORKSHOP ON LEARNING OUTCOMES IN HIGHER EDUCATION

12 April 2019

14.30-18.00

Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore - Via Carducci 28/30, Milan

What are learning outcomes? Why are they useful? What is the logic behind their proper structure?

This workshop looks at learning outcomes and their position, use and importance in course planning and delivery. Participants will take part in group activities providing practice in writing learning outcomes. It is aimed at Università Cattolica academic staff, particularly those teaching international classes.

Conducted by Jenny Moon, Visiting Fellow, Centre for Excellence in Media Practice, Bournemouth University, UK. Introduction by Amanda Murphy, Director of CHEI, Professor of English Language and Translation, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, and Renata Viganò, Director of CeRiForm and Professor of Experimental Pedagogy, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore.

Promoted by the Centre for Higher Education Internationalisation together with CeRiForm, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore.

Online information here. Enrol online here.

Draft programme

14.30-15.00	Introduction by Amanda Murphy (Director of CHEI, Professor of English Language and Translation, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore) and Renata Viganò (Director of CeRiForm and Professor of Experimental Pedagogy, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore)
15.00-16.00	Keynote: Jenny Moon, Visiting Fellow, Bournemouth University, UK
16.00-16.15	Debate and Q&A
16.15-16.30	Break
16.30-18.00	Practical Workshop
18.00-18.15	Wrap up