

UNIVERSITÀ
CATTOLICA
del Sacro Cuore

RESEARCH SEMINAR FOR PH.D. CANDIDATES IN HIGHER EDUCATION INTERNATIONALISATION

CHEI - Centre for Higher Education Internationalisation
Via Carducci 28/30, Milan

OBJECTIVE

To assist prospect and current PhD students in the field of higher education internationalisation in their research design and process by creating a community of students and scholars sharing the same research interest.

ORGANISATION

Centre for Higher Education Internationalisation (CHEI)

LOCATION

Università Cattolica Sacro Cuore, Via Carducci 28/30, Milan, Italy

DATES

18-20, April, 2013

PARTICIPANTS

Current and prospect PhD students in the field of higher education internationalisation, in particular students who combine a practice of international education with a research interest.

COURSE LEADERS

Professor Hans de Wit, Director of CHEI, and Professor Fiona Hunter, member of the CHEI Scientific Committee.

TEACHING STAFF

Mike Wallace, Cardiff Business School - UK

John K. Hudzik, Michigan State University, East Lansing - USA

Stephen C. Dunnett, State University of New York, Buffalo - USA

Wendy Green, University of Queensland - Australia

FEE

350 Euro. The fee includes participation, course material, coffee/tea, three lunches, one dinner and one cocktail.

Travel, accommodation and any other meals not included.

Individual meetings of participants with teaching staff can be arranged during the programme

Thursday, April 18 - Via Nirone 15

9.00 Seminar - Room NI 110
“Higher Education and International Development: a focus on Africa”

Research Seminar - Room NI 010

13.30 Lunch break

14.30 Presentation and discussion of research proposals and progress reports by the participants with course leaders

18:30 Networking cocktail with members of the Scientific Committee

Friday, April 19 - Via Carducci 28/30, Room C 211

Starting to develop you Overall argument – Mike Wallace, Cardiff Business School

The sessions will focus on developing your critical thinking capability, critical reading and writing, and developing your argument about what you propose to do in your doctoral dissertation project.

9.00 Doctoral Study Skills Workshop - Starting to develop you Overall argument

10.30 Coffee Break - Room C212

10.45 Doctoral Study Skills Workshop - Starting to develop you Overall argument

12.30 Lunch Break - Room C212

13.30 Doctoral Study Skills Workshop - Starting to develop you Overall argument

15.30 Coffee Break - Room C212

15.45 Doctoral Study Skills Workshop - Starting to develop you Overall argument

17.30 End of Day

Saturday, April 20 - Via Carducci 28/30, Room C 211

9.30 Discussion with John K Hudzik and Stephen C. Dunnett on “Comprehensive internationalisation and research”- Chair and member of the Scientific Committee of CHEI

11.00 Guest lecture by Wendy Green on “Action research on internationalisation of the curriculum”- Lecturer in Higher Education, University of Queensland

13.00 Lunch Break – Room C212

14.00 Closing session: lessons learned, next steps, evaluation.

15.30 End of the Programme

20.00 Dinner at Ristorante “Da Giordano – Il Bolognese”, Corso Genova – Via Torti